

HISPANIC HISTORY OF TEXAS PROJECT
joint conference with
TEXAS STATE HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION (TSHA)

Corpus Christi, March 6-8, 2008

CALL FOR PAPERS

Hispanic History of Texas Project is a project to locate, preserve and make available the historical legacy of Hispanics in Texas from its beginnings until 1960.

The conference is open to scholars, graduate students, anthropologists, archivists, genealogists, independent scholars, historians, librarians, etc. who wish to give papers or report on their field as related to the history of Mexican Americans and Latinos in Texas history.

Deadline for submissions: April 27, 2007

Submit a 150-word abstract and curriculum vitae to:

Carolina Villarroel, Project Manager
Recovering the U.S. Hispanic Literary Heritage Project
University of Houston
256 Cullen Performance Hall
Houston, TX 77204-2006

Tel.: (713)743-3128
Email: CVillarroel@uh.edu

Sponsored with a grant from the Houston Endowment